ACCLAIMED PLAY "YO SOY LATINA" NOMINATED FOR 2005 IMAGEN AWARD

MAY 2005

New York -- On May 3rd in Beverly Hills, the critically acclaimed play YO SOY LATINA was nominated for a 2005 Imagen award. Written, produced and directed by Linda Nieves-Powell, this production tells the story of six ethnically and culturally diverse Latinas who arrive at a seminar entitled "What is a Latina?" in the hopes of understanding their culture and the impact it has on their lives. It doesn't take long for each woman to offer her unique perspective on men, jobs, family, and Latino society.

YO SOY LATINA had an Off-Broadway run last summer and has been touring in colleges and universities. A published work was released in March and is available online at www.amazon.com and www.barnesandnoble.com.

Linda Nieves-Powell is president of Latino Flavored Productions Inc., a multimedia entertainment company that creates successful breakthrough Latino-flavored English language products that reflect the desired quality entertainment that Latino audiences are seeking. There will be a performance of YO SOY LATINA on June 14th at the White Plains Performance Arts Center in White Plains, NY. For additional information, visit www.latinoflavored.com.
