INTAR NewWorks Lab is a developmental program created in 1995, dedicated to the support of emerging playwrights, directors, actors and other artists from the Latino community in a theatrical context. The NewWorks Lab provides an environment where new work can evolve without the pressure of outside critical standards. The yearly public presentations allow artists to experience a live audience, which helps further develop their work.

INTAR is a donor-supported, not-for-profit, arts organization.
Contributions are welcome, which are tax-deductible.
